CALL TO WORSHIP

We gather as people shaped by faith— received from those before us, and carried forward for those who come next.

We come with gratitude for what we have been given.

We bring our questions, our hopes, and our everyday lives.

Because we know that God meets us here, just as we are.

We are not meant to build faith alone.

So together, we listen for God's wisdom and we worship the God who is faithful—

From generation to generation. Now and always.

Amen.

 trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation,

Faith worth passing on.

NEW SERMON SERIES

Faith Worth Passing On begins today and is a three-week series about responsibility, hope, and partnership.

We are responsible for the church of our generation—which means we are also responsible for what we pass on to the next. Many of us are working harder than ever to raise kids in faith, yet wondering why it feels more difficult than it used to. What worked before doesn't always work now.

So what if faith was never meant to be built alone?

This series invites parents, grandparents, caregivers, mentors, and the whole church to rediscover how faith is formed—not through perfection, pressure, or fear, but through presence, promises, and shared direction. Together, we explore how God calls us to synchronize our efforts and mobilize a generation to love God and serve others.

This isn't about getting it right. It's about recognizing what matters.
